PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS, Eastern League professional baseball has existed in Burlington and the State of Vermont for only three years - and in every one of these years the Vermont Reds have won their League championship (which has got to be some kind of record); and
- WHEREAS, The Vermont Reds have become the first baseball team in the 64 year history of the Eastern League to win three consecutive Eastern League Championships; and
- WHEREAS, The Vermont Reds and their fans have consistently manifested the unconquerable spirit of this state, and on numerous occasions have come back from the brink of disaster - leaving their fans emotionally exhausted and traumatized - but happy; and
- WHEREAS, The people of this city and state wish to express their sincere appreciation to the ballplayers, coaches, staff and management of the Vermont Reds for another great season of fun, joy and excitement.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bernard Sanders, Mayor of the City of Burlington, do hereby proclaim September 10, 1986 as VERMONT REDS DAY.

Bernard Sanders, Mayor
